

Internet Authorization Form

Boy Scout Troop 553

Last updated: 24 August 2010

Approved by the Troop 553 Committee on August 17, 2010

- Troop 553 follows the BSA Guidelines for Youth Protection at all times, including on our internet web site at <http://troop553.com>
 - Contact information for youth members will NOT be posted on the web page.
 - A Scout's first name and/or recognizable photograph may be posted ONLY with written permission from his parent or guardian.
 - Registered Adult Leaders serving in Troop 553 positions will be treated in the same manner (i.e., names or photographs ONLY with written permission).
 - Adult/Scout contact information, including street address, phone numbers and email addresses will be provided ONLY on restricted access pages that are password protected. The password for these restricted access pages will be made available to any Scout's parent or guardian by request.
 - Former Troop 553 members over the age of 18 may be identified by name in the troop history or Eagle Scout listing, but no contact information will be given.
 - Troop 553's web site will not host any chat rooms, discussion lists, or any technology which would allow our youth members to engage in interactive, unmoderated, anonymous interaction with strangers on the internet. We will NOT directly provide any links to external sites where such things are possible.

Parents are encouraged to monitor all youth activity on the internet.

If you would like to have yourself or your Scout included on the web site and have access to Troopmaster web, please complete and sign the authorization section below. This authorization will remain in effect until you request in writing to have yourself or your Scout's name removed. Boy Scout Troop 553 will maintain these internet authorization forms on file for all of its members. We will make every effort to follow your preferences when posting names or photographs on the Troop 553 web site.

Please print, sign and return the authorization form to the Scoutmaster.
